“...anyone
seen my shoes?”

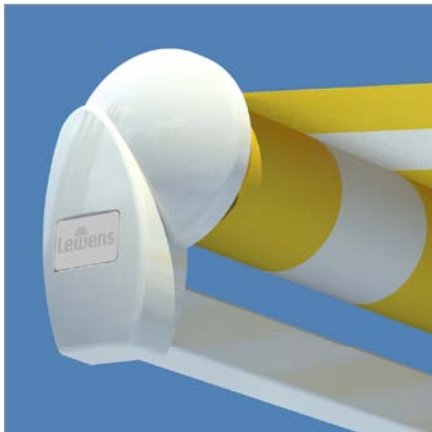

The evening sun is still warm on your skin, the fresh garden scent mingles with barbecue aromas and the mood is upbeat. It's party time under the awning! ECONOMY is the perfect solution for quality and design at a budget price, combining fun with shade from the sun for young people and families.

Our ECONOMY awning is the perfect budget solution for anyone looking for a well-designed sunshade, Lewens quality and easy operation, all at an attractive price. It's suitable for medium-sized patios, with a max. width of 600 cm and max. drop of 300 cm. Simply choose between the Open type and the Rain Cover type.

Hinged-arm awnings from Lewens offer the ideal shading solution for patios and balconies. They excel in terms of quality and are easy to install, with a freshness of design and a variety of optional features.

Combine all this with a fabric from our huge Lewens collection and a standard or special frame colour – the possible combinations are endless.

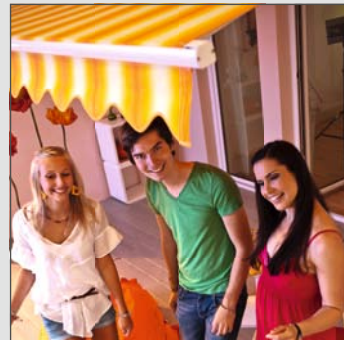

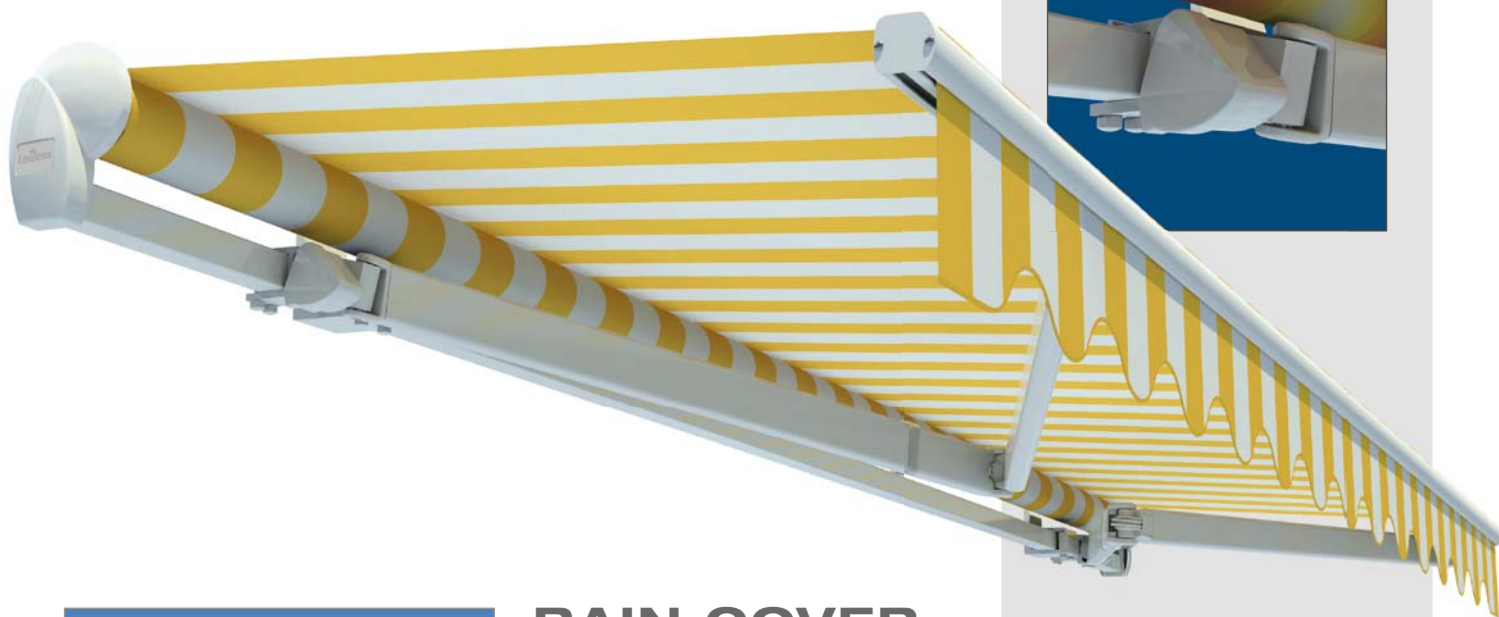

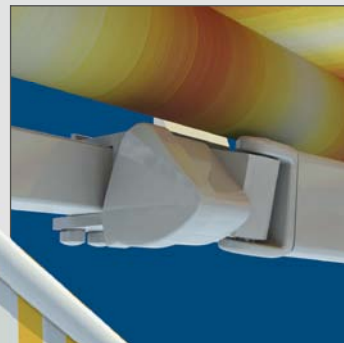

OPEN TYPE

On the basic ECONOMY type, the awning fabric roller is exposed or “open”.

Round end caps at the sides create a harmonious impression.

Arm bracket of high-strength aluminium alloy, forged upper arm fork.

Economy – open type

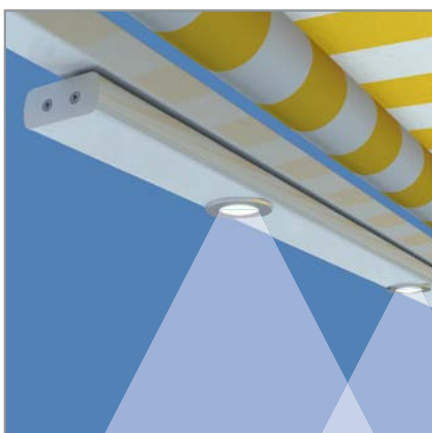

RAIN COVER TYPE

The protective cover of the ECONOMY RAIN COVER type protects the awning against the effects of the weather when it is retracted.

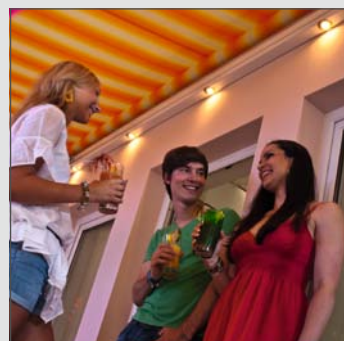

Front profile bracket for connecting the arms securely to the front profile.
